

Workshop Technician

Applications are invited for the position of Workshop Technician – Toyota & Lexus Ireland

Key Responsibilities:

- Assessment and preparation of vehicles for press review.
- Maintain Lexus Ireland Fleet when required.
- Maintain Toyota Ireland Fleet when required.
- Keep all necessary maintenance records and follow warranty procedures.
- Responsible for workshop consumables.
- Ensure workshop is compliant with TSM.
- Perform PDI and install accessories in new vehicles when required.
- Follow Technical / General Training as required.
- Assist in FTR preparation and parts returns to TME / TMC.
- Diagnose and repair of technical problems on vehicles returned to our workshop.
- Monitor and process parts returned from Network.
- Control parts return area.
- Quality control of new vehicle stock.
- SST control – Loan Programme to Dealers.
- Carry out PDC on Stock vehicles.
- Undertake duties of a general nature or additional tasks as may be required by the Head of Technical.

Skills & Experience:

- Must have QQI Level 6 Advanced Certificate Craft – Motor Mechanics qualification (or equivalent).
- Fully qualified.
- Experience working with Toyota & Lexus brands not essential. A comprehensive training programme will be put in place.
- Ability to produce high quality work in a busy environment and be motivated to achieve set targets.
- Be willing to attend manufacturer training and proactively keep up to date with the latest models and techniques.
- Be a committed individual with a positive ‘can do’ attitude and willingness to work as part of an effective team.
- Full, clean drivers’ licence.

Applications and enquiries to recruitment@toyota.ie.

Toyota Ireland is an Equal Opportunities Employer